The seminar is open to members of EKF-affiliated kyudo clubs in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, and Iceland. Participants must have basic tachi skills and be able to shoot at a 28 m mato using standard ANKF taihai. Both shomen and shamen shooters are welcome.

Participants who are not able to perform zasha (sitting shooting) must state this in the registration form and submit a medical certificate/federation approval during the registration, onsite.

Participants must wear traditional training clothing: hakama, keikogi/kimono and white tabi. Participants with 3 dan and above must wear wafuku and perform hadanugi/tasukisabaki.

- Bring a notebook and the kyudo manual
- Line-up at the start/end, takes place with the lowest number at the front on the right (if you are facing the kamiza)
- Do not ask the sensei's any questions during the seminar, except on direct request
- It is not possible to participate only in part of the seminar without special permission.

Dinner

On Saturday evening, anyone who wishes can participate in a joint dinner for SEK 195 per person. Beer and wine can be ordered in the restaurant for those who wish. If you wish to join, please add this fee to your seminar fee.

Seminar fee

The seminar fee is 2100 SEK per person. The fee includes coffee, tea, refreshments, and lunch, both days. Or 2295 SEK with dinner.
